A hand-drawn map on aged paper showing a coastal region. The map includes several labeled locations: 'GAYTVIKEN' in the upper left, 'Power Ho' and 'Radio Mast' below it, 'Reefing Dock' to the right of the dock area, 'King Edward Pt' in the center, 'Tussock' and 'The Hummocks' in the lower center, 'Discovery Ho' in the upper right, and 'Very steep scree slopes' along the right edge. Other features include 'Gas (Huns) Tree', 'Dam', 'Serec', 'Tussock', 'Radio Mast', 'Hast', 'Radio Station Mast', and 'Hast'. A scale bar at the bottom left indicates distances of 100, 0, and 500. The map uses dashed lines for boundaries or paths and solid lines for the coast. Various symbols like small squares, circles, and clusters of dots represent buildings, structures, or vegetation.
